Introduction

The NATO Communications and Information Agency (NCIA), is seeking to award a number of innovation contracts to NATO companies to strengthen the integration with the Ukraine BRAVE1 intergovernmental defence innovation platform.

The NCIA hereby notifies the following Procurement Opportunity in accordance with the Procedure for NATO Competitive Procurement. This notification is issued to foster open and fair competition among eligible vendors from participating nations. This notification does not constitute a commitment to award a contract.

Ukraine seeks to match NATO funding to solicit proposals from Ukrainian companies that would then work together with vendors from participating nations. Only joint proposals provided together by Allied and Ukrainian companies will be accepted for this competition. For the Notification of Procurement Opportunity, companies may register interest without having pre-identified their partner from the corresponding geography, with the intention of finalising a joint proposal together during the solicitation period.

Vendors are invited to review the requirements described herein and to submit their bids in accordance with the instructions provided in this notification and subsequent solicitation documentation. All interested vendors are reminded that timely registration and compliance with eligibility requirements are essential, as deadlines for submission may not be extended. Vendors are advised to regularly check for updates to this notification.

This opportunity reflects NATO's commitment to transparency, equal treatment of suppliers, and the efficient delivery of goods, works, and services in support of NATO missions and participating nations.

All eligible and responsible sources may submit a proposal, which shall be considered by the NCIA.

Ukraine-NATO Innovation, Technology & Engineering (UNITE BRAVE NATO) Programme – Innovation Contracts

2. Description of Requirement

2.1. Introduction

- 2.1.1. Ukraine has been successfully running an innovation program through the Brave1 programme. Brave1 has been an active mechanism for ingesting innovation in defence capabilities.
- 2.1.2. NATO is looking at strengthen the cooperation between NATO companies and Ukraine companies in the innovation domain.
- 2.1.3. There are mutual benefits in establishing a joint innovation programme between NATO in Ukraine, the most relevant being exchange of technological advancements and the access to relevant operational requirements.

2.2. Project Objective

- 2.2.1. UNITE BRAVE NATO will fund innovation competitions that correspond to Ukraine's interoperability requirements and/or Ukrainian capability gap priorities communicated to NATO. By matching these requirements to innovation priorities provided by Ukraine, UNITE BRAVE NATO competitions will help fund technological breakthroughs that meet urgent operational needs and accelerate a learn-by-doing approach to the Alliance's rapid adoption efforts.
- 2.2.2. This first UNITE BRAVE NATO competition will focus on joint intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance (ISR) innovation and counter-UAS capabilities. Example topics in these areas include aerial systems advancements related to autonomous airborne recognition and SIGINT/ELINT detection and classification. The exact topics will be communicated at the solicitation stage.
- 2.2.3. Establishing equal partnership collaborations between NATO and Ukraine is a key aspect of the UNITE BRAVE NATO programme.

2.3. Scope of Work

- 2.3.1. Competition will focus on rapidly scaling prototyped and tested systems, i.e., focus primarily on Technology Readiness Level (TRL) 7-9, and will embrace iterative, problem-based contracting that follow NATO's rapid adoption principles.
- 2.3.2. UNITE BRAVE NATO will award contracts for joint projects between NATO member nations companies and Ukraine companies to deliver rapidly scaling prototyped and tested systems through competitions.
- 2.3.3. Deliverables of the contract will be a live demonstration and accompanying report.

3. Vendor Eligibility

- 3.1. Participation in this Procurement Opportunity is restricted to vendors from participating nations to be indicated in the solicitation documents. Vendors from non-participating nations are not eligible to serve as prime contractors or sub-contractors.
- 3.2. This restriction applies to the eligibility of the vendors only and does not require that the goods, works, or services themselves be manufactured or produced within participating nations.
- 3.3. Information on Ukrainian companies that register their interest will be forwarded to Brave1.
